We will attempt to provide answers to all of the questions on the next page of this form. Due to periods of incomplete data (information not provided to the cemetery by family members during previous decades), not all data desired is available. Therefore, your request may have all of the information sought, some of it, or in some instances, no information at all. No refund will be issued unless the person you are seeking information on is not buried in Evergreen-Washelli. (We are sometimes asked why we charge a fee if no information can be provided. Our staff spends considerable time, and usually more time, searching all our record sources looking for any information we can provide.) NOTE: As a general rule, we cannot provide the names of parents, children or other relatives because family relationships have not been recorded in our records. If a person is buried on a family lot, we can tell you who is buried on the lot with them.
